

NETWORK AND OUTREACH COORDINATOR NETHERLANDS AND EUROPE

12 July, 2022

●●● ABOUT US

Youth Peace Initiative (YPI) is a young and dynamic organisation that facilitates youth in conflict areas to participate in peace processes by increasing the capacity, knowledge and skills of young people. Therefore, providing them with the tools in order to engage in their respective peace and reconciliation processes. It does so by organising international projects, programmes and conferences. Additionally, YPI organises events and activities for Dutch and international youth in The Netherlands to engage with peace issues.

YPI's approach is unique and characterises itself by its targeting group and approach by bringing future actors in conflict areas together in order to establish constructive dialogue and plans for a (more) sustainable future.

YPI is located in The Hague, the political capital of The Netherlands. The team is small yet ambitious, and in order to realise our current and future plans YPI is looking for a new board member, who can maintain and expand YPI's network, organise relevant (advocacy) activities in the Netherlands and Europe. The mission of YPI cannot be achieved without working closely with others in various arenas. Therefore, we are currently looking for a Network and outreach Coordinator Netherlands and Europe.

●●● ROLES & RESPONSIBILITIES

- General development of YPI's network and outreach in the Netherlands/Europe
- Advocating for YPI's vision and mission and programmes at the European and Dutch levels
- Coordinate the implementation of programmes at the European and Dutch levels
- Ensuring administrative and reporting requirements for projects are fulfilled
- Youth Carnegie Peace Prize point of contact and coordination
- Support Communications coordinator
- Monitoring possibilities for YPI to set up programmes in NL and Europe, with the support of the Fundraising Officer

We are looking for a confident and proactive team member with strong work ethic and organisation skills. As our work relies on trust and impartiality, YPI encourages people to apply with an open disposition and affinity for diplomatic representation.

●●● REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS & EXPERIENCE

- Under the age of 30
- Living in or within travelling distance to The Hague for at least one year
- Proactive and diplomatic by nature, with a drive to change the world
- A self-starter as well as a dynamic team player
- Interested in conflict resolution, international politics, peacebuilding, and youth engagement
- Experience and skilled in organising activities and events is considered an asset, but not required
- Fluent in English.
- Able to maintain networks on an international level
- Adaptive to new and ever changing situations with a 'can-do' attitude
- Still studying or looking to gain experience.

→ Previous experience in a similar position is an advantage, but not a must as YPI is a young and developing organisation.

In return YPI offers you the opportunity to help create a new generation of young leaders in peacebuilding, contribute to the development of a youth organisation, and expand your international network. Please note that this concerns a voluntary part-time position (approximately 10 hours per week). YPI will cover work-related expenses such as travel costs.
